Day 1 The 50 best summer pubs

36 THE WHITE HART, SOMERSET

This 16th-century pub in Somerton has exposed stone walls, parquet floors and eclectic, slightly bohemian rooms. The restaurant is run by Tom Blake, a former head chef at River Cottage, so expect dishes such as chargrilled chicken salad and wood-roasted pork belly. There's a charming back garden with sunshades. A good base for visiting Wells cathedral.
