STEPHEN MOSS is one of Britain's leading nature writers, broadcasters and natural history television producers. A lifelong naturalist, he has travelled to all seven of the world's continents in search of wildlife. His TV credits include the BAFTA-award-winning Springwatch, The Nature of Britain and Birds Britannia, while his books include Wild Hares and Hummingbirds, Ten Birds that Changed the World, and 'bird biographies' of the Robin, Wren, Swallow, Swan and Owl. He writes a regular monthly 'Birdwatch' column for the Guardian, and is a Visiting Research Fellow at Bath Spa University. Stephen lives on the Somerset Levels, and is President of the Somerset Wildlife Trust.
